Re; Year 11 timetable for the exam period

9th May 2022

Dear Parents/Carers,

For the duration of the summer exams, Year 11 pupils will follow a revised timetable that includes lessons and revision sessions that complement their exams. A copy has been distributed to pupils. It is also available on our website under students and exam information. It is important that pupils check the schedule and attend every session available for their relevant subjects.

Pupils will be required to be in school full-time up to and including Thursday 23rd June.

All revision sessions are compulsory and will provide crucial preparation for the exams. Normal lessons and study periods will also be running and pupils must stick to the schedule at all times.

As courses finish, pupils are required to continue attending lessons as per this timetable and take with them study materials for other exams yet to be taken. They will not be permitted to leave lessons to collect revision materials – they must take them to the lesson.

Pupils are expected to wear full school uniform for all examinations, revision sessions and lessons throughout the exam period.

Please also be aware that pupils need to be available for exams up to and including Wednesday 29th June 2022, which is the date set by the Government for exam contingency this year. This will only be enforced should the running of exams be seriously disrupted, but we are required to inform you that your son / daughter may be required for exams until that date.

The school will look to run some revision sessions during the half term holiday (Monday 30th May until Friday 3rd June). More information will follow in due course regarding this.

If you have any questions regarding the upcoming exam period, please contact me on pclayton@huntcliffschool.co.uk

Thank you for supporting school and your child our efforts to maximise achievement this summer.

Yours sincerely

Mr P Clayton
